Fall, 2017

The Smoky Mountain Fiber Arts Festival is seeking fiber art vendors and demonstrators who wish to participate in and benefit from the ninth annual Smoky Mountain Fiber Arts Festival. The Festival will be held at the Great Smoky Mountain Heritage Center, Townsend, Tennessee, April 20-21, 2017, 9am—5pm and Sunday, April 22, 2017, 10am-4pm.

The Festival will continue to depict “sheep to shawl” processes and will include techniques such as carding, spinning, dyeing, weaving, felting, knitting and crochet. Animal and fiber art demonstrations, classes, and a marketplace of fiber art supplies and finished goods will attract experienced fiber artists, those interested in learning the art form, school age children, and visitors to our area.

The Festival is popular as an event for Fiber Artists in the southeast and beyond. We believe it will continue to grow. The Festival will be free to the public and ample parking is available.

As a business owner and/or fiber artisan, you have an opportunity to participate in one of the top Fiber Art events and to increase exposure of your business and talents. We are offering various sizes of booth spaces both inside and outside of the facility for you to display and sell your products or demonstrate fiber art techniques. More details are on the attached pages. Also, if you are interested in teaching a class, download and complete the application.

If you would like to participate or would like to have more information, please contact: Steve, townsendartisanguild@gmail.com, or telephone the Festival Committee chair noted below.

We look forward to working with you to showcase your art, your business and your expertise.
